INTRODUCTION

Background:

The Right to Information Act, 2005 (22 of 2005) has come into force on the 12th October, 2005. This Act provides the right to citizens to secure access to information under the control of Public Authorities, in order to promote transparency and accountability in the working of every public authority. Under this Act, information means any material in any form, including records, documents, memos, e-mails, opinions, advices, press release, circulars, orders, logbooks, contracts, reports, papers, samples, models, data material held in any electronic form and information relating to any private body which can be accessed by a public authority under any other law for the time being in force. The right to access of information under this Act includes the right to:-

- i. inspection of work, documents, records;
- ii. taking notes, extracts or certified copies of documents or records;
- iii. taking certified samples of material;
- iv. obtaining information in the form of diskettes, floppies, tapes, video cassettes or in any other electronic mode or through printouts where such information is stored in a computer or in any other device.

Objectives of this Hand Book

Section 4(1) of the Right to Information Act provides that every public authority shall publish details of the organization's functions, duties, etc. for the general information of the public. This Hand Book, attempts to give the required information about the Ministry of Parliamentary Affairs.

The Ministry of Parliamentary Affairs is one of the Ministries under the Government of India and acts as an important link between the two Houses of Parliament and the Government in respect of Government Business in Parliament. The Ministry mainly deals with the two Houses of Parliament and their Secretariats, Members of Parliament, Central Government Ministries, Departments and Organizations, State Governments/UT Administrations and Educational Institutions.

Every effort has been made to provide brief details about the functioning of the Ministry of Parliamentary Affairs in this Hand Book. In case, any person needs any additional information relating to this Ministry, he may contact the Public Information Officers of this Ministry. The details of the PIOs and the procedure for obtaining information has been given in Chapter 14 of this Book.

CHAPTER 2

Particulars of Organisation, Functions and Duties

1. Organisation

In the parliamentary form of Government, the day-to-day working of the parliamentary system makes large claims on the time and resources of various Ministries/Departments. The parliamentary business covers numerous intricate matters, namely financial, legislative and non - legislative. The Ministry of Parliamentary Affairs provides the critical interface between the Government and the Parliament. The Ministry, though small in size, handles a large gamut of activities ranging from managing Legislative business, assurances, and Consultative Committees to welfare of Members of Parliament and organising Youth Parliament Competitions.

The Ministry was created in 1949 as a Department. It is now a full-fledged Ministry. The main office of the Ministry is located in Parliament House, New Delhi. A branch of the Ministry dealing with Implementation of assurances given in Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha is also located in Barracks Number 140 to 144, Jammagar House, New Delhi.

2. Functions and Duties

Under the Government of India (Allocations of Business) Rules, 1961 the following functions have been assigned to the Ministry of Parliamentary Affairs:-

- 5.9 (a) Secretary – A Secretary to the Government of India is the administrative head of the Ministry or Department. He is the principal adviser of the Minister on all matters of policy and administration within his Ministry/Department, and his responsibility is complete and undivided.
- (b) Joint Secretary – When the volume of work in a Ministry exceeds the manageable charge of a Secretary, one or more wings may be established with Joint Secretary, incharge of each wing. Such a functionary is entrusted with the maximum measure of independent functioning and responsibility in respect of all business falling within his wing subject to the general responsibility of the Secretary for the administration of the wing as a whole.
- (c) Deputy Secretary- Deputy Secretary is an officer who acts on behalf of the Secretary. He holds charge of a Secretariat Division and is responsible for the disposal of Government business dealt within the Division under his charge. He should, ordinarily be able to dispose of the majority of cases coming upto him on his own. He should use his discretion in taking order of the Joint Secretary/Secretary on more important cases, either orally or by submission of papers.
- (d) Under Secretary – An Under Secretary is in charge of the Branch in a Ministry Department consisting of two or more Sections and in respect thereto exercises control both in regard to the despatch of business and maintenance of discipline. Work comes to him from the sections under his charge. As Branch Officer he disposes of as many cases as possible at his own level but he takes the orders of Deputy Secretary or higher officers on important cases.
- (e) Section Officer –
- A. General Duties:-
- (i) Distribution of work among the staff as evenly as possible;
 - (ii) Training, helping and advising the staff;
 - (iii) Management and co-ordination of the work;
 - (iv) Maintenance of order and discipline in the section'
 - (v) Maintenance of a list of residential addresses of the staff;

B. Responsibilities relating to Dak:-

- (i) to go through the receipts;
- (ii) to submit receipts which should be seen by the Branch Officer or higher officers at the dak stage;
- (iii) to keep a watch on any hold-up in the movement of dak; and
- (iv) to scrutinize the section diary once a week to know that it is being properly maintained.

C. Responsibilities relating to issue of draft:-

- (i) to see that all corrections have been made in the draft before it is marked for issue;
- (ii) to indicate whether a clean copy of the draft is necessary;
- (iii) to indicate the number of spare copies required;
- (iv) to check whether all enclosures are attached;
- (v) to indicate priority marking;
- (vi) to indicate mode of despatch.

D. Responsibility of efficient and expeditious disposal of work and checks on delays:-

- (i) to keep a note of important receipts with a view to watching the progress of action;
- (ii) to ensure timely submission of arrear and other returns;
- (iii) to undertake inspection of assistants' table to ensure that no paper of file has been overlooked;
- (iv) to ensure that cases are not held up at any stage;
- (v) to go through the list of periodical returns every week and take suitably action on items requiring attention during next week.

E. Independent disposal of cases:-

He should take independently action of the following types:-

- (i) issuing reminders;
- (ii) obtaining or supplying factual information of a non-classified nature;
- (iii) any other action which a Section Officer is authorized to take independently.

F. Duties in respect of recording and indexing:-

- (i) to approve the recording of files and their classification;
- (ii) to review the recorded files before destruction;
- (iii) to order and supervise periodic weeding of unwanted spare copies;

- (iv) ensuring proper maintenance of registers required to be maintained in the section;
- (v) Ensuring proper maintenance of reference books, Office Orders etc. and keep them up-to-date;
- (vi) Ensuring neatness and tidiness in the Section;
- (vii) Dealing with important and complicated cases himself;
- (viii) Ensuring strict compliance with Departmental Security Instructions.

(f) Assistant/Upper Division Clerk – He works under the orders and supervision of the Section Officer and is responsible for the work entrusted to him. Where the line of action on a case is clear or clear instructions have been given by the Branch Officer or higher officers, he should put up a draft without much noting. In other cases he will put up a note keeping in view the following points:-

- (i) to see whether all facts open to check have been correctly stated;
- (ii) to point out any mistakes or incorrect statement of the facts;
- (iii) to draw attention, where necessarily, to precedents or Rules and Regulations on the subject;
- (iv) to put up the Guard file, if necessary, and supply other relevant facts and figures’
- (v) to bring out clearly the question under consideration and suggest a course of action wherever possible.

(g) Private Secretary/Personal Assistant/Stenographer- He will keep the officer free from routine nature of work by mailing correspondence, filing paper, making appointments, arranging meeting and collecting information so as to give the officer more time to devote himself to the work in which he has specialised. The Personal Assistant will maintain the confidentiality and secrecy of confidential and secret paper entrusted to him. He will exercise his skill in human relations and be cordial with the persons who come in contact with his boss officially or who are helpful to his boss or who have dealings with the boss as professional persons.
